Adult talent appearance release

Permission schedule

Permission is limited to the completed schedule. An empty scope field grants no permission; it does not mean all media, all territories, or an unlimited term.

Complete the PDF fields, then save and reopen to check your entries. Use a referenced attachment if you need more room.

General drafting template for adults. Obtain qualified local legal review and confirm applicable union requirements before use.

Who and what this covers

Production and release reference
[Project title, release ID, and issue date]

Producer and performer
[Full legal names, business contact, and performer contact]

Recorded material
[Recording dates, location, performance or appearance, and exact asset or scene references]

Permitted use

Purpose and permitted users
[Specific project purpose and named producer, client, distributors, or service providers]

Media and channels
[List each authorized medium, channel, platform, format, and whether paid advertising is included]

Territory
[Named countries or regions; state worldwide only if expressly agreed]

Term
[First permitted use date, last permitted use date, and any agreed start trigger]

Promotion and identification
[Specify permitted project promotion and use of name, credit, voice, likeness, stills, or clips]

Restrictions and approval steps
[Context restrictions, excluded uses, review rights, and approval deadlines or attachment]

Adult talent appearance release

Permission and signatures

Payment and end of use

Agreed consideration
[Amount, currency, payment due date, and any linked engagement or payment schedule]

End of term and retained copies
[Removal plan, existing distribution treatment, and restricted archival retention terms]

Attachments and review
[Scope attachment IDs, versions, legal reviewer, applicable jurisdiction, and review date]

Limited permission

In exchange for the consideration stated above, the Performer permits the Producer to record the identified appearance and to use the specified material only within this completed schedule and its signed attachments. The Producer may give the named users access only for that authorized use and remains responsible for honoring these limits.

Editing for timing, framing, sound, and continuity is permitted within the agreed context. It must not falsely portray a new endorsement, attribute an unperformed statement to the Performer, or materially misrepresent the appearance. No transfer of the Performer's underlying copyright is made by this release.

Artificial-intelligence training, digital replicas, voice cloning, biometric profiling, and synthetic performances are excluded. Additional uses require a separate written agreement and any required union process. No general release of unrelated claims or waiver of nonwaivable rights is given.

The Performer confirms they are an adult under applicable law and can authorize their own appearance. Both parties have reviewed the completed scope and retain a signed copy. Applicable law and binding union agreements take precedence.

Signatures

Performer permission
[Signature, printed name, and date]

Producer acceptance
[Authorized signature, printed name, title, and date]

For adults with authority to consent to their own appearance. Qualified local counsel must review the completed terms and any referenced addenda before use. It does not replace a union agreement or authorize AI, digital replicas, or unrelated endorsements.